SATS, the world's leading aviation solutions provider, is driven by its purpose to feed and connect communities. With a vision to be the market leader in delivering innovative food solutions and seamless connections, SATS focuses on purposeful growth and transformation. Founded in 1955, SATS has undergone significant transformations over the years. The company established itself as a subsidiary of Singapore Airlines in 1972 and later expanded its services to include airfreight terminals and airport services. In the 1990s, SATS formed joint ventures with several airlines and invested heavily in new technologies. In recent years, SATS has continued to grow through strategic acquisitions and partnerships. The company acquired Singapore Food Industries in 2009 and formed a joint venture with AirAsia in 2018. SATS has also expanded its services to include cruise terminals management and aviation food innovator Monty's Bakehouse. Throughout its history, SATS has remained committed to its core values of Passion to Delight, Safety, Innovation, Trust, and Teamwork. The company prioritizes the needs of its customers and strives to deliver exceptional service experiences. SATS also places a strong emphasis on safety, adhering to rigorous protocols and best practices to ensure the well-being of its team members, customers, and stakeholders. Today, SATS is poised for continued growth and success. With its comprehensive gateway services and innovative food solutions, the company is well-positioned to connect people, businesses, and communities seamlessly. As SATS looks to the future, it remains committed to its values and mission, driven by a passion to delight customers and create lasting partnerships. At SATS, we believe everyone deserves equal opportunities. We celebrate individuality and promote a culture of respect, ensuring each person feels appreciated and empowered to shine. Our pursuit of excellence is unwavering, from delivering top-notch services to nurturing lasting connections with our clients. A relentless drive for improvement fuels our ambition, helping us bring out the best in every team member. Teamwork is at the heart of our success story. We acknowledge that collective brilliance can only be achieved through open communication, mutual support, and collaboration. Joining SATS is a chance to be part of a dynamic team that's passionate about making a positive impact. You'll have access to unique career paths in various sectors, such as airport operations, security, and more. As a SATS employee, you'll have the opportunity to work with customers at Singapore Changi Airport and other major aviation hubs worldwide. If you're looking to make a difference with a like-minded team, we encourage you to explore this exciting career opportunity.
